

I am opposed to any relaxation in the FCC Guidelines for television. This country already has enough problems with the sexual activity of teens, violence, and immorality much of which is due to the culture created through the media. Relaxing these guidelines will expose children to the same adult content that is in movies that they aren't allowed to see. Also, as an adult, I chose to not watch movies with a lot of profanity, and I certainly do not want my children exposed to television with elicit profanity and nudity. This certainly is not in the best interest of the citizens of this country.
